3. EARLIER THIS EVENING I WAS TOLD THAT THE WASHINGTON POST EDITION FOR TOMORROW, FEBRUARY 22, WOULD CARRY A SPECULATIVE STORY INDICATING THAT UNITED STATES BILATERAL AID LEVELS FOR AFGHANISTAN WOULD BE REDUCED IN LIGHT OF THE OVERALL DETERIORATION OF U.S./AFGHAN RELATIONS. HOWEVER I AM INFORMED THAT THE STORY WILL INDICATE THAT

UNITED STATES INTENDS TO MAINTAIN A BILATERAL AID PROGRAM FOR BASIC HUMAN NEEDS AND THAT SUCH A PROGRAM IS DESIGNED TO KEEP OPEN THE AVENUES OF COMMUNICATION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND AFGHANISTAN.

4. IF THAT STORY APPEARS TOMORROW THE DEPARTMENT WILL PROBABLY FIND IT NECESSARY TO COMMENT AT THE NOON BRIEFING. WE WILL ATTEMPT TO PUT THE ANTICIPATED REDUCTION OF AID LEVELS IN A BROAD CONTEXT AND NOT LINK IT SOLELY TO THE ASSASSINATION OF AMBASSADOR DUBS.

5. IN ANY EVENT I WANTED YOU TO HAVE SOME ADVANCE NOTICE OF WHAT I APPREHEND WILL BE A STORY SPECULATING ON A REDUCTION IN OUR AID LEVELS AND A GENERAL DETERIORATION IN OUR RELATIONSHIPS BASED UPON RECENT EVENTS. THE REDUCTIONS BEING CONSIDERED ARE PROBABLY THE MINIMUM NECESSARY UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

6. I LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU NEXT WEEK IN NEW DELHI
